

Southwest Ohio Swim League
Agenda
May 20, 2003
Cincinnati Resource Center

Devotions: Claudia introduced the film "Everybody Wins". It is an excellent marketing tool and does a fine job of telling what is different about YMCA swimming. The league purchased copies for each team in the league. Copies were distributed to the teams in attendance.

Old Business

A Champs – Everyone liked the format of last year. 3 A championship meets.

AA champs – Excellent meet at Miami.

Zone – The zone meet went well. Tom Janszen and Mike Leonard expressed concern with the teams that did not furnish officials and make no effort to furnish officials. Claudia will express that concern to the zone committee.

National – The meet ran very smoothly at Fort Lauderdale. M E Lyons won combined and men's division.

Masters – A well-run meet in Sarasota. 450 swimmers. Powel Crosley YMCA placed 6th in combined.

New Business

Long course information is being reviewed right now. It will be posted by the first of the week.

Fall Meeting- September 15, 2003 7 PM Resource Center . The executive committee would like to use the meetings to emphasize values and stress eligibility rules, etc. Coaches should be required to attend -- Bruce Griffin will talk on values. We will talk about the need for Certifications, the rules of eligibility, etc.

Toby will post certification dates on the web
